

Aven, Making Me Fall

This is why I cant stay beside you
The walls are closing in, Im falling
This is why I cant be praying with you
The streets are filled with lies, Im lonely
This is my heart, the time is out of reach Im sinking
This is why I promised to be near you
But the time is set to be ending
I told you why, Im a stranger inside
I told you why, why the palm of my hand are closing
This is why I cant stay beside you
The walls are closing in, Im falling
This is why I cant be praying with you
The streets are filled with lies, Im lonely
How can I fail?
I have just to succeed
Running out of hope
It?s a time to believe
How can I fall
when I know whats in sight
Running out of hope, theres a time to forgive
Making me fall, This is why I cant stay with you
Making up for love, this is why I cant forget
Making up for all the ways I tried
Making up for love Im running home for shelter
