

Average Jo, So What Does It All Mean?

I knew when I first met you
Well I thought it quite funny
Your eyes were so damn blue
Your smile was a joke your style was money

So what does it all mean?
To find someone that makes you cry inside
She's got the players on her team
How could I smile when all she did was say 'hi'

That one day when he's gone
I'll get my chance to ask you out
Then I'll show my colorful life

Well, I'd like to be like you
With a rep like yours my little honey
I'm not sure what I can do
Just know that I ain't no fing dummy

So what does it all mean?

To try so hard to get the right words out
Well, I wish I could come clean
I'm givin' my all but I have my doubts

That one day when he's gone
I'll get my chance to ask you out
Then I'll show my colorful life
Yeah, my colorful life

That one day when he's gone
I'll get my chance to ask you out
That one day when he's gone
I'll get my chance to ask you out
That one day when he's gone
I'll get my chance to ask you out
And then I'll show
My colorful life
My colorful life
My colorful life
