Average White Band, Please Dont Fall In Love

Please don't fall in love
leave the words unspoken
'cos if you do you know
your heart will get broken, uh-huh

Love is a plain and simple game for fools
What makes you think you can change all the rules
But my advice to you-
is to look around, Don't even think twice about this lovin' thing you've found

You talk about love as if it's a matter of fact Love deals the kind of hand that's bound to bite you back If you feel sure enough-then that's alright But when the doubt creeps in you've got to let it slide

Please don't fall in love
your heart will get broken
Please don't fall in love
unless you're truly certain
'cos if you do you know you're gonna be hurting
