

Average White Band, Will You Be Mine

It's not what you do
It's just the way you do it
Makes me feel this way
It's not what I see It's what I read into the looks you've been giving me
Now, make no mistakes
I'm not sure I can take anymore of this waiting game
If I had my way
I'd like to hear you say
You kinda feel the same way too

When will you be mine
Do I have to wait forever?
When will you be mine
Do I have to wait forever?
When will you be mine
When will you be mine

It's not what you think but when you take a drink
I feel this invitation
There's no need to worry,
'cos I'm in no hurry
I just want - that sensation
I don't look for trouble, sometimes that trouble comes lookin' for me
There's one thing that I want to do
Is take you out of here with me

When will you be mine
Do I have to wait forever?
When will you be mine
Do I have to wait forever?
When will you be mine
When will you be mine
