

Averi, The Time It Takes To Disappear

I guess it was over before it began
And if destiny exists then we're according to plan.
But you look great. And how have you been?
Do you ever find yourself swimming in
The oceans we swam in before?

What a shame
That all this potential has gone to waste.

You vanished from my line of sight.
But from time to time I catch hold of your eyes.
But they turn too quick and I'm left to stare
And scream to myself that that place was where
I always thought I'd remain in some way.

What a shame
That all this potential has gone to waste.

Look what you've done to me,
I'm fixed on this "what couldn't be"
And look what you've done to me,
I'm lost in what we'll never be.
And it's like jumping off the tallest building
We went from everything to nothing
In a blink of your eyes.
In the movement of your breath.

What a shame
I guess it was over before it began
Well we're according to plan
And you look great.
