

Avery, Tonguetied

I came into the party
And i saw u there
Ur baby blue eyes
And spiked up hair
I tried to ignore u
We were along time ago
But no matter how i try to hide it
I know its gonna show
I started to talk with my friends
But then u came over
With some new chick
I wonder how u know her
I wanted to ask u
I even tried
But whenever i'm around u
I get so tonguetied

We were supposed to be
Together
Forever
Forever aint so long no more
We were in love for the longest time
So why now do i get so

Tonguetied

Five months later'
Sittin at home
Drinkin some pepsi
All alone
The telephone rings
I say hello
It turned out to be you
Who woulda known
It was so weird
And i dont know why
U gave me full closure
And i started to cry

We were supposed to be Together
Forever
Forever aint so long no more
We were in love for the longest time
So why now do i get so
Tonguetied
