

Avril Lavigne, Destiny

Destiny

searching for my destiny not knowing where to look searching all over the world
pointless, without a system

Where is my destiny?

Where and what is my destiny?

You will always know that I'm looking for it with you

(chorus)

Is it in the sky?

Under the sea or on the ground?

In a wood or in the deserts?

On a mountain or in a valley?

Together we will find our destiny

Together we will search

All those years, looking

All those years, pointless

Why do I say it was pointless

Looking for it with you

I will give you the reason

My destiny...is you...

(chorus 2x)
