

Avulsed, Eminence in Putrescence

[music: juancar 2/99]

[lyrics: dave rotten]

a realm of sickness - with rotting landscapes gory red skies - nauseating air a hidden hell - for tortured souls decomposition - is everywhere

[chorus:]
feeding from souls - of melting corpses absorbing power - and evilness amorphous being - mighty entity an eminence - in putrescence a long deep cave - (its) macabre palace bleeding cadavers - instead of walls blood, bile, pus - dripping around forming the river - of rottenness

[chorus:]

a putrid stench - pervade the ambience fermenting innards - decomposed limbs the twisted bodies - screaming in pain soulless remnants - left to rot

[chorus:]
