

Avulsed, Homeless Necrophile

[music: furni 7/98]
[lyrics: dave rotten]

worthless drunk loser withdrawn on his own misery hater of mankind despised any help to his suffering neglected by society left apart by his own family he even enjoys his state eating shit and sleeping on the streets

[pre-chorus]
now he feels that he's totally free to unleash his own perversity and be what he wished to be a despicable human being

[chorus:]
uncontrollable homeless necrophile aggressive homeless necrophile abominable homeless necrophile psychopath homeless necrophile creating his own living rules nobody's gonna tell him what to do no room for conscience or morality only the strongest will survive always struggling with other homeless for no reason with a knife in his pocket waiting for revenge but once he tasted the power of killing he couldn't resist then he felt he had to kill and kill and kill:

a simple argument was enough to slay any man and when the victim was a she then he had to free his sexuality necrophilia was his fave act of brutality a cold and frigid corpse no screams, no face and obedience

[pre-chorus]

[chorus:]
aggressive homeless necrophile
