

Away From Here, My Addiction

...As I sit back
Watching by
Yourself inside
Inside of my mind
Wrapped into your thoughts
Into my mind
We've got to fight
These hands of time
Love in my heart
Head held high
Never hurt you
Or set you aside
Flash me that smile just so I
Can lose my self
Lose everything to that smile

And you will become my addiction
Striving for just one more
One more minute, month, year with you
When the fire's nearing the end
I will not forget you

Build me a castle
Just so I
Can break down those walls
Meet you on the outside
Write you a song
Just so I
Can have an everlasting moment
That will make you cry.....
