

Axel Rudi Pell, Cold Heaven

You call yourself a lady
With innocent eyes
But your mind drives me crazy
A devil in disguise

Burnin' nights of passion
Lasting from dusk till dawn
Falling in and out of romance
Forever on and on

The heat of the moment's
Hiding your cold hearted lies
Inordinate torment
A waste of my time

Cold heaven
Feels like hell
You're heart's like a stone
Cold heaven
Nothing more to tell
Better leave you alone
Leave you alone

I used to be your romeo
Your master of sin
But you behave like a gambler
Playing games you can't win

Extinguish the fire
Been blinded by the flame
But there's no more desire
Don't want to feel your pain

The heat of the moment's
Hiding your cold hearted lies
Inordinate torment
A waste of my time

Cold heaven
Feels like hell
You're heart's like a stone
Cold heaven
Nothing more to tell
Better leave you alone

Cold heaven
Feels like hell
You drive me insane
Cold heaven
Nothing more to tell
Love's not a game
