

Axel Rudi Pell, Unchain The Thunder

[Music: Pell]

[Lyrics: Pell/Rock]

They disappear right before my eyes all my dreams and the love of my life oh no I feel the shock and the danger no way can't find no love with a stranger war and peace you know there ain't no rules look out, it turns lovers to fools down on my luck now out of deep frustration I'm lost in desperation oh no, can't get enough of your show oh no, I don't know where to go Unchain the thunder, let the lightning strike Unchain the thunder,
let the lightning strike tonight Feels so right when I'm in your spell let me know if it's heaven or hell oh, take a walk on the wild side come on in from the outside gimme your way, control the situation, now I'm in a new creation
oh no, can't get enough of your show oh no, I still don't know where to go
unchain the thunder,
let the lightning strike unchain the thunder, feels so right unchain the thunder, feed my appetite
unchain the thunder,
unchain the thunder
[Solo]
unchain the thunder,
unchain the thunder, stay with me tonight
unchain the thunder,
let the lightning strike tonight
walk on the wild side
come on in from the outside
