

Axel Rudi Pell, You Want Love

[1st Verse]

All over the world there's a feelin that's always the same
A fallen world(?) is a part of the game
Search high and low, someday hopin to find the answers
Now, one thing I've learned is to don't work that.....(?)

[Pre-Chorus]

If you can remember, dont hide away from all your fears
Heart as a pretender, and a fool for all your tears

[Chorus]

You want love, a feeling from deep inside
Love, is something you cannot hide
You want love, the ridence in your eyes
Love, is something you cannot hide

[2nd Verse]

Fight for the truth, is enough to drive you insane
It all seemes to be confusion and pain
Now, someday I now we will follow all our dreams
Escape from the lies and run from the rain

[Pre-Chorus]

If you can remember, dont hide away from all your fears
Heart as a pretender, and a fool for all your tears

[Chorus]

You want love, a feeling from deep inside
Love, is something you cannot hide
You want love, the ridence in your eyes
Love, is something you cannot hide

[3rd Verse]

And every mornin you wake up
Is this a dream or is this real?
Will you ever find love find love again?
Now, tell me what you feel, yeah yeah..

[Guitar Solo]

[Chorus + Singin]

You want love, a feeling from deep inside
Love, is something you cannot hide
You want love, the ridence in your eyes
Love, Oh lord!
You want love
Love you feel it deep inside
If you can remember, dont hide your love
