

Axenstar, Beyond The Lies

We walk through the fields of insanity
And life it seems has passed you by
Dark open wounds, caressing your soul
Never ever sane again
In laughter, in sorrow, we share all of life's seasons
Together as one, we go to war
Killing, fighting, screaming, dying
To see beyond the lies
We reached the final step
The end of our misery
It is a slaughter of souls
This seems to be our destiny
Far away from our sacred lands
Fighting someone else's war
It is a sad excuse for a legacy
In laughter, in sorrow, we share all of life's seasons
Together as one, we go to war
Killing, fighting, screaming, dying
To see beyond the lies
We reached the final step
The end of our misery
It is a slaughter of souls
To see beyond the lies
We reached the final step
The end of our misery
It is a slaughter of souls
