

Axis Mile, Living In The Moment

Hatred grows within,
Hatred for things produced in replication,
Of another's thoughts,
And another's emotions,

From the day we're born,
Society sends us mixed messages,
Encouraged to succeed in life,
A paradox of having a good time

Living in the moment is important,
Trying to be someone is in vain,
Production of the past is futile,
More is lost than gained

Living in a world,
Where individuality is encouraged,
Striving to be different,
And follow other people's examples

Living in the moment is important,
Trying to be someone is in vain,
Production of the past is futile,
More is lost than gained

Hatred grows around,
Hatred for things produced in domination,
Of another's beliefs,
And another's mind

Living in the moment is important,
Trying to be someone is in vain,
Production of the past is futile,
More is lost than gained
