

Axis Mile, Lonely Lives

Back in my child - hood
When all of my thoughts were free,
I start to think of this,
Or how I'd like it to be,

I know now,
The door was left wide open
I know, nothing can go wrong

Now that my eyes are wide,
To everything life could've been,
I start to think of you,
And how it was meant to be,

I know now
The door was left wide open
I know, nothing can go wrong
We both know,
There's nothing left between us,
I know, nothing can go wrong

We're all living the lonely lives,
We're all wishing our thoughts were free,
We're all lost in our dream worlds and fantasies

It's been so long now,
My heart feels all the pain,
Thinking bout all those years,
How everything could have been,

I know now
The door was left wide open
I know, nothing can go wrong
We both know,
There's nothing left between us,
I know, nothing can go on

We're all living the lonely lives,
We're all wishing our thoughts were free,
We're all lost in our dream worlds and fantasies
We're all living the lonely lives,
We're all wishing our thoughts were free,
We're all lost in our dream worlds and fantasies

Looking back now, I can see the problem
All the love reflected back at me

You brighten up my day,
With just a single smile,
And you have no idea,
Of how I am feeling for you.

We're all living the lonely lives,
We're all wishing our thoughts were free,
We're all lost in our dream worlds and fantasies
We're all living the lonely lives,
We're all wishing our thoughts were free,
We're all lost in our dream worlds and fantasies
