

Axis Mile, Lost In The Silence

Marchin' fields of red,
Growing over time,
I still see the dead,
Alive in my mind,
Just past the hill,
A memory remains,
Stained to the soil,
The blood of the brave,

Once I was proud,
Of what was to be,
To die for one's country,
A fight to be free,
We were all lied to,
Your life trudged behind you,

My mind is a ghost war,
Lost in the silence,
Never seen the pain,
The lights in the darkness,
They drive you insane,
Lost in the silence,
Of the ghost war,

Have you ever been alone,
Felt like someone's watching you,
Hand upon your shoulder,
Breathing down your neck (Breathing down your neck),
Every thought you've seen,
The rhythm of the ancient guns,
Shots into the emptiness,
Them shadows in the dark,

Looking at them right in the eyes,
Face the fear of the picture tormenting my,
Keep your eyes tight shut,
Keep your eyes tight shut

Ever thought you've seen,
A sea of ghostly army men,
Standing in a formal stance,
A fight to end them all,
Look into their eyes,
Focus on their silhouettes,
Roam the silent hills tonight,
Migration of the dead,

Looking at them right in the eyes,
Face the fear of the picture tormenting my,
Keep your eyes tight shut,
Keep your eyes tight shut,
Keep your eyes tight shut,
