

Ayla, Sun Is Coming Out

You fight the sunday crawling and you turn raindrops to sunlight, but secretly I ask myself am I just dreaming?
I never want to get awake

I still dream, the sun is coming out
I still dream, the sun is coming out
I still dream, the sun is coming out
I still dream, the sun is coming out

I still dream, the sun is coming out
I still dream, the sun is coming out

I hear the raindrops falling, can you turn them into sunlight?
I close my eyes and see myself daydreaming
I never want to get awake

...(Sun is coming out)

I still dream, the sun is coming out
I still dream, the sun is coming out
I still dream, the sun is coming out
I still dream, the sun is coming out
