Ayo, And It's Supposed To Be Love

Verse 1
Body slam you to the ground
Messaging a chill
Curses make the head go'round,
Brings a certain thrill.

Send you to another world Mesmerize your brain It's the jewel of a pearl Makes you go insane

And it's supposed To be love Yes, it's supposed to be love Well, it's supposed to be love Say 'cause it's all 'cause of love

Verse 2 It's a sad and lonely song Sour grapes and tears Something dark is going on, Going on for years

Body slam your partner down Up against the wall It's a sad and scary scene With no grace at all

And it's supposed to be love Yes, it's supposed to be love Well, it's supposed to be love Say 'cause it's all 'cause of love

Verse 3 Wonder how it came to be. Things with me and you. How we lost the way to love, How we got so blue.

Body slam your lover down, Fill'em with regret Who knows what the end will be. It ain't over yet.

And it's supposed To be love Yes, it's supposed to be love Well, it's supposed to be love Say 'cause it's all 'cause of love
