

Ayra Starr, Last Heartbreak Song ft. Giveon

Why you no dey get my time?
Is there someone else?
You dey do me cunny o
Every day new story o
Shey I just dey waste my time
Cause you dun become someone else
See palava for me o
You no dey touch my body o

It feels good to
Love somebody
And somebody loves you back
But it feels one-sided now
It feels one-sided now
You don't have to
Pretend about it
Cause it's crystal clear now now
Guess it's bye to the good times
I'll be gone by the sunrise

I'll be better on my own
I'll be better on my own, na, na
Nobody should call my phone
Nobody should call my phone, na, na
This is my last heartbreak song
This is my last heartbreak song, na, na
I'll be good all on my own
I'll be good all on my own, na, na

Why are you so quick to leave
When we both could make it work?
When I'm gone I make you nervous
If you hurt me I deserve it
I've been acting foolishly
Forgetting what you're worth
You stopped loving me, I noticed
But even chaos serves a purpose

It feels good to
Love somebody
And somebody loves you back
So don't give in to your changed mind
Cause I'll be here for a lifetime
You don't have to pretend about it
Cause it's crystal clear now now
Guess it's bye to the good times
And I'll be gone by the sunrise

I'll be better on my own
I'll be better on my own, na, na
Nobody should call my phone
Nobody should call my phone, na, na
This is my last heartbreak song
This is my last heartbreak song, na, na
I'll be good all on my own
I'll be good all on my own, na, na
