

Ayreon, Dawn Of A Million Souls

At the birth of time, the beginning of beginnings
One cosmic soul was created
A bringer of life, a universal migrator
Born to sow its seeds in all the galaxies

Like a cell dividing, it spreads in all directions
Creating life among the stars
Now I'm struck with awe as I join the great migrator
Now it takes flight to the brightest star of all

On a quest for life, through the sable skies
What a show! (What a show!) Behold! (Behold!)
The dawn of a million souls

On a bold crusade, in the realm of shade
What a show! (What a show!) Behold! (Behold!)
The dawn of a million souls
Yeah!

Through the glowing mist, like a fog of radiation
I can see the forming of new planets
Well it's like I've been struck by thunder as I witness all the splendor
And I realize just how small, how small we really are

On a quest for life, through the sable skies
What a show! (What a show!) Behold! (Behold!)
The dawn of a million souls

On a bold crusade, in the realm of shade
What a show! (What a show!) Behold! (Behold!)
The dawn of a million souls

Oooh, I can see forever
On the wings of dreams I fly
Is this real or is it just a fantasy?
What awaits me now at the end of this ride?

On a quest for life, through the sable skies
What a show! (What a show!) Behold! (Behold!)
The dawn of a million souls

On a bold crusade, in the realm of shade
What a show! (What a show!) Behold! (Behold!)
The dawn of a million souls

On a quest for life, through the sable skies
What a show! (What a show!) Behold! (Behold!)
The dawn of a million souls

On a bold crusade, in the realm of shade
What a show! (What a show!) Behold! (Behold!)
The dawn of a million souls

Oooh, I can see forever
Oh! On the wings of dreams I fly
Is this real, is this real or just a fantasy?
What awaits me now? What?
