

Az Yet, I Don't Want To Be Lonely

Verse 1

My bags are packed and I'm about to go you said you needed time to be alone but just incase you have a change of mind heres my number where I'll be tonight

You know its was hard for me to understand but I'm gonnna try and be a an understanding man I'm hoping you will have a change of heart
Cuz without you I'm gon' fall apart

Chorus

I dont wanna be lonely
I dont wanna see a day without you
I dont want nobody else in your arms
I dont want nobody holding you
I dont wanna be lonely
I dont want nobody laughing wit you I dont want nobody else in your heart
I dont want nobody loving you

Verse 2

I left an address on the kitchen door with a set of keys both mine and yours I'm hoping i wont need these keys for long Cuz I'm praying you'll ask me back home

I dont want nobody else in your arms
