

Azealia Banks, Anna Wintour

I'm so cold
I'm so grown
I'm so real life
I'm so show off my diamonds designed to twinkle and belled light and the valley fills whit darkness shadows chase as run round I can make them stop for me and no lamb no saviors shelter I'll be better off alone I'll walk an my one pace
I don't need no one I;ve got my own I've got it made in the morning I cheer fior sunshine and I feel it but I don't feel enouight in the midnight hours I try to show me

now I believe
diamonds and dreams
come true for girls like me no I feel in love me baby I really know that your love is enough and I;m so lucky you found me in the day I needed love
now I feel in love babe everywhere you are your dude come to rock for me hot body, yes I got it al of the girls are dances floors queens until I put my Blahniks on it move and make it hot for me hot rot dance for me get naughty he wild out for these expensive options you know the gliow stuning in front now shades always these bitches can't look

and I;m so lucky you found me in the day
I needed love
