

Azealia Banks, Venus (Ibiza Edition) (Ft. Paul Oakenfold & Richard Beynon)

Une chance, une danse, un rendez-vous en France
L'amour, la tour, on s'aimerait pour toujours
Une chance, une danse, un rendez-vous en France
L'amour, la tour, on s'aimerait pour toujours

I don't need you, hey Mister, Mister New York
You know I've no problem, giving you what you want, want
But what does it mean to you?
Don't blame it on I'amour
Don't you do me wrong wrong, you know I'll be long gone

It's melonies hypnotic in bed,
Hiding my dress, the pleasures ahead
Just an embrace he whispers?
Angels & heaven and hell
I ain't all yours, never alone
We belong to the end just? we wanna for this
I ain't all yours never alone,
We belong to the end just? we wanna for this
I can, hey let me give you my love
And if you like it, lay next to me in the morning,
In the night yeah, I long about you, I wanna make you mine and Alright yeah.

I don't need you, hey Mister, Mister New York
You know I've no problem, giving you what you want, want
But what does it mean to you?
Don't blame it on I'amour
Don't you do me wrong wrong, you know I'll be long gone

Une chance, une danse, un rendez-vous en France
L'amour, la tour, on s'aimerait pour toujours
Une chance, une danse, un rendez-vous en France
