

Aztec Camera, All I Need Is Everything

Words and music by Roddy Frame

Tears, just like the jewels,
Adorn their corporate crown,
Weigh on me worthless and I,
Shake them down and leave now,
And have no royal things.
You, would consecrate the ground,
I paced in pain,
And though those pavements,
Caught your sorrow stains,
They fall from me and I say,
Maybe don't fall for anything,
That says it's never gonna,
Give you everything.
I wish myself into your arms,
To know that all I need is everything.
The size of the sea, and the sun in my eyes,
And the line in my head,
Yearning for more, only for more.
These days are are bright as the days I have seen
In the wildest of dreams,
Yearning for more, only for more.
I wish myself into your arms,
To know that all I need is everything.
Hold back the night, I am tired of my sight
That won't see anymore,
More than today, threatening to stay.
Hold back the night, I am tired of my sight
That won't see anymore,
"Show me you care", is "Show me the door".
