Our love's the sound

Of broken skies

Too blind to see

What lies inside

We love what shines

Before our eyes

Why can't we learn

What hides?

Chorus:

Waiting on the last train

Flicking through the highlights

Livin' in a suitcase

Positively uptight

Kissing in the full moon

Drowning in the sunshine

Walking on a tightrope

And everything is gonna be just fine

'Cos I believe in your heart of gold

Automatically sunshine

Yeah glitter, glitter everywhere

Like working in a goldmine

And we believe that there's a heart beats on

In the dark of the closedown

Yeah glitter, glitter everywhere

Like working in a goldmine

And time not tied

Is time to feed

We lose our pride

We spill our seed

The worst of us

Escape so slow

The best of us

Just goes

Chorus

They'll make you work for everything

Never let it roll

Never let it swing

Take control and let your heart sing
