

Aztek Trip, Shut Up

Surely you've been misled again
Sarcastically listened to every word I haven't said
Maybe you can read my mind without me knowing
Finish all my sentences and fill it with words I wouldn't say

Shut up shut up
Wait until I'm done with talking
Shut up
Stop putting words into my mouth again
Shut up shut up
Condescending motherfucker
Shut up shut up your mouth
And let me speak my mind

Lately, you've been on my mind again
I couldn't help to notice
But you haven't heard a word I've said
So what am I to do with, what am I to say
Whatever makes you happy in the end
Let it all end up your way

Shut up shut up
Wait until I'm done with talking
Shut up
Stop putting words into my mouth again
Shut up shut up
Condescending motherfucker
Shut up shut up your mouth
And let me speak my mind

You can't deny that you're hearing
You said its all been done before
Time and time again
At times I'd like to say, don't you ever run away

Shut up shut up
Wait until I'm done with talking
Shut up
Stop putting words into my mouth again
Shut up shut up
Condescending motherfucker
Shut up shut up your mouth
And let me speak my mind

Shut up shut up
Wait until I'm done with talking
Shut up
Stop putting words into my mouth again
Shut up shut up
Condescending motherfucker
Shut up shut up your mouth
And let me speak my mind
