

Azure Ray, Safe And Sound

With every word I live again through the eyes of another
We'll meet at night, wet from the rain and surprise each other with how we take away the pain
Could you be the one to find me safe and sound?
Love is how it's lost .. not how it's found

I don't know those eyes, but I see beauty there.. always
I know it's wrong to love you from afar, but it's a craze

You recognize my pain..
Could you be the one to find me safe and sound?
Love is how it's lost.. not how it's found
Love is how it's lost.. not how it's found

I'll take away your pain
Could you be the one to find me safe and sound?
Love is how it's lost .. not how it's found
Love is how it's lost .. not how it's found

Love is when I'm lost.. not when I'm found
