

B.B. King & Eric Clapton, Marry You

It's the sugar so sweet
Kind I'd like to
Meet you at midnight
And tell no one else about it
I'm gonna make you mine
'Cause I know we've got the time
Now and then, baby
Hey, I want you to know
I wanna marry you
Isn't that what you want, too?
I wanna marry you
Isn't that what you want, too?
Come on in the back of the fifty-seven
Let me show you the way, the way to heaven
You're looking so sweet, yes you are
I'll make sure that you've got some heat
I've got you on my mind
You know you've got my time
Now and then, baby
Hey, I want you to know

I wanna marry you
Isn't that what you want, too?
I wanna marry you
Isn't that what you want, too?
I'm falling in love with you
I'm in love with you
You make all my dreams come true
Make all my dreams come true
I'm falling in love with you
I wanna marry you
I wanna marry you
Isn't that what you want, too?
I wanna marry you
Isn't that what you want, too?
I wanna marry you
Isn't that what you want, too?
I wanna marry you
Isn't that what you want, too?
