B.B. King, My Love Is Down

Don't you understand me, baby? There'll never be no one else but you Can't you understand me, baby? There'll never be no other one but you I loved you then and I love you now, baby And no one else will ever do Every time the sun goes down, baby My love, my love comes down for you Every time it rain, baby My love it comes down for you There ain't no other woman, baby That can understand me the way you do If you would only listen to me, baby We would still be together today If you would only, only listen to me, baby We would still be together today But instead of listening to me You listen to everything other people have to say Baby, please come home There's nobody in your place Aye baby, please come home There's nobody in your place Home is no home to me, baby Without looking in your smiling face Oh, I love you so much, baby My love for you will never die I love you, I love you, I love you so much, baby My love for you will never die And when it began raining, baby My love is down like a [Incomprehensible]
