B.B. King, What You Bet

Someday I'll be gone Believe me, it won't be long When I leave you it's gonna grieve you What you bet

You're abusing of our romance I'm warning you in advance You're gonna cry when I say bye bye What you bet, what you bet

I smiled when you mistreated me My friends called me a fool I firmly believe where love is concerned You've broken every rule

Oh, you got a good thing in me You're gonna lose me, wait and see You won't wake up until we break up What you bet, what you bet

Oh, I smiled when you mistreated me My friends called me a fool I firmly believe where love is concerned You've broken every rule

Oh, you got a good thing in me You're gonna lose me, wait and see You won't wake up until we break up What you bet, baby
