

B.B. King, You're Losing Me

If you can't do no better, think I'd better get another that can
Yes, if you can't do no better, think I'd better get another that can
You know you're going around and cheap on me
You're doing nothing but losing a good man

You know life is too short to be worry, and I think you are not to understand
Yeah, life is too short to be worry think you are not to understand
You're keep going around and cheap on me
You ain't doing nothing but losing a good man

If I never said hello to you baby then I won't be say good bye
Hey, if I never said hello to you baby then I won't be say good bye
I got my cloths already packed now
I'm so hurt, I wanna cry

Oh, can you hear me, hear me baby?
Can you hear me?
Oh, I got my cloths
My cloths already packed now
I'm so hurt, I wanna cry
I wanna know why you treat me like you do baby
I wanna never tell me why

Yes, if you can't do me no better baby, think I'd better get another baby that can
Yes, if you can't do me no better baby, think I'd better get another baby that can
The way you treat me now baby, you ain't doing nothing but losing a good man

Hey, life is too short to be worry and I think you are not to understand
Hey, I say life is too short to be worry and I think you are not to understand
The way you treat me now baby, you ain't doing nothing but losing a good man

What you say now!
