

B*Witched, Jump Down

I woke up to find, your face on my mind.
The sun always shines on my garden.
I told you before just knock on my door
Cos you know the score, it's my party.

You ran away with my spoon
You've stolen my heart
Always laughing
I jumped over the moon
Right from the start
You always make me feel good.

Jump Down.
I never believed in love, till now.
I've never believed in love
Jump Down.
I've never believed, I've never believed in love
That's why I'm letting you know.

You're always around, stamping the ground
The letter I found was yours truly.
It's so plain to see what, you wrote to me was Positively unruly.

You ran away with my spoon
You've stolen my heart
Always laughing
I jumped over the moon
Right from the start
You always make me feel good.

Jump Down.
I never believed in love, till now.
I've never believed in love
Jump Down.
I've never believed, I've never believed in love
That's why I'm letting you know

Whoah letting you know
Whoah I don't want you to go
Oh! you make me feel good

Jump Down.
I never believed in love, till now.
(never believed in love)
I've never believed in love
Jump Down.
I've never believed, I've never believed in love
(Yeah yeah)
That's why I'm letting you know
Jump Down.
(Oh yeah)
I never believed in love, till now.
(Oh yeah)
I've never believed in love
Jump Down.
I've never believed, I've never believed in love
That's why I'm letting you know
Jump Down
