

B2krazy, B2k Baby Girl

He took advantage of your love and he threw it all away
He broke your tender heart words can't express what you want to say But deep inside you know that theres someone out there for you who I'll love you tenderly and turn your dark skies into blue

Chorus

So tell me girl

Why do you look so sad

Baby girl Baby girl

It couldn't be so bad

Baby girl Baby girl

I know its hard to start again to find somebody new

But dont you be afraid bad times dont last but true lovers do

As the night follows the day some you win some you lose

But dont give up oh no you have to get rid of the old to get the new baby yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah

chorus x2

Let me dry your eyes

I am here for you

You are not alone

I know what your going through so sad baby girl oh baby girl oh oh oh aaaaaah
