Artist Name: Baal

Album Name:

Song Name: Copenhagen Streetlights leaving on a bright new day searching for a place to stay victim of my own misfortune feeling low clinging on to what i once had holding on to what's over ground under copenhagen streetlights i can see under copenhagen streetlights i will be

if i don't find it again
if i don't find it again
walking through the sewers again listening to the sounds above so aloof punching holes alone in the air wishing for a soul that would pull me up again under copenhagen streetlights i can see
if i don't find it again
under copenhagen streetlights there's a heart under copenhagen streetlights we won't part
