

Baal, Hipocrisy

Ive seen the decay of the believers
Ive seen the sunset in the horizon
Ive felt the beat strength of the universe
Taken by the rages thoughts of their minds
Of their minds
I cant believe in the rest of the creatures
I cant believe in peoples gestures
I dont get how theyre still afraid of them
Ive thought about doing it again,
So many times
Beliefs that have our dream incarnates,
Frightening yells that occupy the desert,
Chained madness the hands with shackles,
Lies that weight like stoned things
What do you plan to do, when you looking of yesterday?
What do you propose for it
Not to succumb gain?
I dont want to explain what your eyes see
I dont want to look whats eternal
I dont want to go down the infernal stairs
I dont pretend to be the object to your lies
Thoughts of death strike your mind today
Thoughts of looser will win someday
Any reason is right to attack
Nothing excuses you from not wanting to pay,
Pay your lies
What do you plan to do, when you looking of yesterday?
What do you propose for it
Not to succumb again?
