

Baal, Leave Me Alone

Beauty with romantics traces
But she manipulates all with a purpose
She wants to laugh thinking that is me
Who wants love and beauty
Cant see my knowledge of yesterday
Sight of hope that will turn to pain
And hate search the way to understand
Ill watch you when I take your hand
Ill tell you what happens:
There is no love in you
Not long ago I thought to have seen the souls
That im searching but there were only of todays.
My eyes ere misled by ignorance
And I thought to have arrived where theres dream
I dont want to condemn you to perpetual fire
And neither see your movements of love
Beauty is power and Satan wants power
Ill tell you what happens:
There is no love in you
Leave me alone
In this place of control
And tranquillity
Hope, love and hate is all
That I always saw in your way
It wont happen again
Wherever you are everything will turn negative
And goodness will start to vanish
