

Babel Fish, I Can Wait

My name shined so bright
Reflecting in my lights
Someone put a sign up
On this rainy night
Naturally I stopped
All three doors were locked
When right out of nowhere
Came this creepy man
With gun in hand
He screamed "Stay in your van";

Well, I can wait
I'm an open-minded guy
I can wait
I'm in no hurry to die

I rolled my window down
Said "We can get along";
He growled "Hi, I'm Satan
Take me back to town
I came to steal your soul
But I'm too freezing cold
'Cause I've been working too hard
So just drive me home
And I'll leave you alone";

Well, I can wait...

When we got 'round the bend
He said "I won't tell when
But we will meet again
Some sunny day";

Now it seems so unreal
Satan turned on his heel
And made me a deal

Well, I can wait...
