

Babii Phantom, Jupiter

I've been to the Jupiter side of this planet i wasnt even planning on it for it to turn so perfect so sweet for me to find you here and everytime i said good bye never wondered why i didnt try pushing you back into my mind it just seems different this time and when we fell like the stars into your eyes into your arms helplessly breathing the love into our lungs
well you saw right through the door collapsing right thru the floor to the other side of forever seems like i got nothin to surrender and all my feelings were left there in Jupiter where we have met once or twice and thrice before now i wonder why i didnt stay for more well all the while you were in my head feeling the blood rushing ahead as pulling back is all i had to do to make you stop being mad
and when we fell like the stars
into your eyes into your arms
our lungs
Maybe times we lost and gained maybe memories did fade maybe i lost a paper with thoughts but i felt this was not wrong coz everytime i lost and gained all my memories persuade me to find that mind of thoughts coz it isnt wrong, it isnt wrong at all and when we fell like the stars
into your eyes into your arms
our lungs
and when we fell like the stars
into your eyes into your arms
our lungs
