

Baby Animals, Because I Can

(DeMarchi/Bettencourt)

Crazy old world lately

Lose a little sun underneath the gun baby

The angels sometimes hide from me

Because I can forget to see

The beauty the beauty

Because I can

Never hear the end would you

Just another day and the chance to play Jesus

Never hear the end would you

Just another one are we having fun yet babe

The angels sometimes hide from me

Because I can forget to see

The beauty the beauty

Because I can

Angels sometimes hide from me 'cause I forget to see

Angels sometimes hide from me

Because I can forget to see

Beauty the beauty

Because I can

Because I can forget to see

Beauty

The angels sometimes hide from me

Because I can forget to see

Oh because I can forget to see

The beauty
