

Baby Animals, Painless

You want to feel a little warmth
A little mercy
You want to feel like this is real
But it's so cold this time of year
And everywhere you liked to go is a reminder
Oh you can smell him in the air
But this is just being unfair
I don't care 'cause life was never meant to be painless
What I would give
Painless
An adjective
Painless
Not gonna beg to be a leg of your adventure
Not gonna cry I'm gonna laugh
It's like a little game of chance
We all anticipate the elements of nature
Well yesterday was years ago
And you have nothing more to show
I don't care 'cause I was always meant to be here
What I would give
Painless
An adjective
Painless
Ooh he's my prince of love
Painless
Sweet tooth of sin
I've got to say it doesn't pay being a stranger
A little distance among friends
Sure way to bring an end
And I need that like a hole in the head
Oh I need that like a hole in the head
What I would give
Painless
