

Baby Lasagna, Don't hate yourself, but don't love

Don't hate yourself
But don't love yourself too much
There are million millions of your kind
Think you're special, but you're not

Really, don't hate yourself
But don't love yourself too much
Mommy said you're a special boy
But you're really not

Toxic positivity and "everything's okay", guess what
There's no possibility of things always going your way
Comparing is despairing, your worth is not in likes
There's no motivational quote to fix your broken life, ow

Don't hate yourself
But don't love yourself too much
There are million millions of your kind
Think you're special, but you're not

Really, don't hate yourself
But don't love yourself too much
Mommy said you're a special boy
But you're really not

No matter how many v-videos you're watching
Not gonna change your brain into thinking positive thoughts
There is no easy way, no one size fits all
Quit looking for salvation on your fucking phone

Don't hate yourself
But don't love yourself too much
There are million millions of your kind
Think you're special, but you're not

Really, don't hate yourself
But don't love yourself too much
Mommy said you're a special boy
But you're really not

La-la-la-la-la, la-la-la-la-la
La-la-la-la-la, la-la-la-laa
La-la-la-la-la, la-la-la-la-la
La-la-la-la-la, la-la-la-laa

Narcissistic culture has reached its peak
Feels a lot like Rome, feels a lot like Greece (Oh, no)
I'm no better, don't get me wrong
I'm as ugly as anybody, let's all sing along

Don't hate yourself
But don't love yourself too much
There are million millions of your kind
Think you're special, but you're not

Really, don't hate yourself
But don't love yourself too much
Mommy said you're a special boy
But you're really not

Don't hate yourself
But don't love yourself too much
There are million millions of your kind
Think you're special, but you're not

Really, don't hate yourself
But don't love yourself too much
Mommy said you're a special boy
But you're really not
