

Babybash, The thrill is gone

(feat. Ryan Tedder of OneRepublic)

I wish it could be like it use to, use to, use to
I wish it could be like it use to, use to, use to
Baby after all of that I don't think I'm coming back
Tell me what would you do, you do, you do?
Things ain't like they use to be baby girl you're losing me
I wish it could be like it use to, use to, use to
Baby after all of that I don't think I'm coming back
Tell me what would you do, you do, you do?
Well now the thrill is long gone
The feelin is all wrong
Got me feelin uncomfortable all in my own home
And your ring tone song deleted from my phone
And danm I use to love that song when it came on
And no this ain't about no new company
It's just time for you to do you and me to do me
And you know, and you know
That I know, that I know
That we don't belong together no more
And even though the memories still make me wanna believe
The facts I gotta face em
It's over it's history
Cause you know
We gotta breath and I don't wanna deceive
A lie or get it twisted so baby I gotta leave.
I wish it could be like it use to, use to, use to
I wish it could be like it use to, use to, use to
Baby after all of that I don't think I'm coming back
Tell me what would you do, you do, you do?
Things ain't like they use to be baby girl you're losing me
I wish it could be like it use to, use to, use to
Baby after all of that I don't think I'm coming back
Tell me what would you do, you, do you do?
The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone, the thrill is gone
The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone, the thrill is gone
The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone
Well now I wish there was a way I could turn back the clock
When the loven was so hot
Good to the last drop
And I wish there was a way I could rewind the time
Wait before the tears and the years on the grind
Now you lookin at me crazy every time you hear my phone ring
Use to get along better back when we was homies
Use to keep it low key now we fight in public
Argue about anything and every single subject
So now I think it's better if we just keep it movin
I won't trip off you and you won't trip off what I'm doin
Cause baby this ain't crackin like it use to be
I think you just got a little use to me
I wish it could be like it use to, use to, use to
I wish it could be like it use to, use to, use to
Baby after all of that I don't think I'm coming back
Tell me what would you do, you do, you do?
Things ain't like they use to be baby girl you're losing me
I wish it could be like it use to, use to, use to
Baby after all of that I don't think I'm coming back
Tell me what would you do, you do, you do?
The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone, the thrill is gone
The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone, the thrill is gone
The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone
Well now I wish there was a way I could turn back the clock
When the loven was so hot
Good to the last drop
And I wish there was a way I could rewind the time

Wait before the tears and the years on the grind
I don't wanna say it but you know what I'm thinking
And we should be apart
Now it's over like a holiday
I don't wanna say it but you know what I'm thinking
And we should be apart
Now it's over
I wish it could be like it use to, use to, use to
I wish it could be like it use to, use to, use to
Baby after all of that I don't think I'm coming back
Tell me what would you do, you do, you do?
Things ain't like they use to be baby girl you're losing me
I wish it could be like it use to, use to, use to
Baby after all of that I don't think I'm coming back
Tell me what would you do, you do, you do?
The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone, the thrill is gone
The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone, the thrill is gone
The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone, the thrill is gone,
The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone, the thrill is gone,
The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone, the thrill is gone,
The thrill is gone (feat. Ryan Tedder of OneRepublic)
I wish it could be like it use to, use to, use to
