

Babyface, Don't Take It So Personal

I was wrong, I was out of line
I didn't mean to lead you on
But there was something in your eyes
Your look so fly, reminds me of my girl back home
Had it been another time, I surely wouldn't
If you and I were gettin' it on
But I got me a girl and she's my world
Thought you should know
Don't take it so personal, personal, babe
Don't you know there's nothin' wrong with you
Nothin' wrong with me, it's just the way it be
Don't take it so personal, ain't got nothin' to do with you
Sometimes you win or lose, get chose or choose
There's really nothin' you can do
Its alright, don't apologize
You didn't mean to turn me on
There was somethin' 'bout that night
That felt so right, even I was bout to lose control
I could think of you, no lie, it's true
I knew I had to stop myself
'Cause I got me a girl and she's my world
I thought you should know
Don't take it so personal, personal, babe
Don't you know there's nothin' wrong with you
Nothin' wrong with me, it's just the way it be
Don't take it so personal, ain't got nothin' to do with you
Sometimes you win or lose, get chose or choose
There's really nothin' you can do
You could've been my girl, I could've been with you
You could have been my baby, too
I could've been your man, you could've been my boo
I could be makin' love to you
I could've been your sweetheart, always down for you
Spendin' all my time with you
But see I got me a girl and she's my world
And I just want to say to you
Don't take it so personal, personal, babe
Don't you know there's nothin' wrong with you
Nothin' wrong with me, it's just the way it be
Don't take it so personal, ain't got nothin' to do with you
Sometimes you win or lose, get chose or choose
There's really nothin' you can do
Don't take it so personal, personal, babe
Don't you know there's nothin' wrong with you
Nothin' wrong with me, it's just the way it be
Don't take it so personal, ain't got nothin' to do with you
Sometimes you win or lose, get chose or choose
There's really nothin' you can do
Don't take it so personal, personal, babe
Don't you know there's nothin' wrong with you
Nothin' wrong with me, it's just the way it be
Don't take it so personal, ain't got nothin' to do with you
