

Babyface, Good Enough

Written by babyface, l.a. reid, daryl simmons (1992)

Performed by bobby brown

Spoken:

Yeah

Just like the old times

I know a lot of you all out there can relate to the old times

So this one is for you

Yeah

Listen

If I take you back in the room

Spin you around my baby

Take off your clothes and all of mine too

Laid you down, way down

We can be discrete, nobody has to know

We don't need no sheets, we can just close the door, my baby

I can take you places you ain't been before

Soon as we get there, baby

You'll be coming back for more, 'cause

If ain't good enough, good enough, baby

I'll work harder

I keep pumpin' every minute girl

And baby I'll do you up, do you up, baby

And I will not stop

'til I know you're hot

If I touch your body tonight

Will you touch mine?

(will you touch me baby? right here!)

Kiss both your lips and rub on those thighs

Taste your wine (lemme taste you baby! aaah!)

I can do it soft, or I can do it hard

I can make you scream if you let down your guard, my baby

It's not too far from here to ecstasy

I know you want good lovin', so lay your body next to me

Hook 2 times

So moving in your body

Feels like I'm gonna be in here all night

And when the love gets rolling

There's no telling when I'll stop

Filled to the brim, I'm gonna trim

You down to the very last drop

And if ain't good enough for you, baby

I'll do it all for you

And I will not stop 'til I know you're hot

Hook

If ain't good enough then I'll work harder

Turn it up, I'll please you darlin'

Do it up, do it up just for you

And baby I'll taste the wine and give you pleasure

Close the door, I'll do whatever

'til I know you're hot

Hook 2 times
