

Babylon Whores, Deggael: A Rat's God

I took my fire upon a mountain
To mock all truth that flatters men
And I damned all hope
That tomorrow shows
For I cursed all life there is
As screaming ghosts
No heaven knows

And I want to be high
As the suns that shine
All the time

I took my fire upon a mountain
To sift through thoughts of all beasts and men
And I purged the gold
Thru which the world shall end
For I courted the Dragon
Yeah that old serpent

And I got to be high
As the suns that shine
All the time

And all of thee
Shall be drunk of me
Oh yes you will
I think I'm Deggael
