Babylon Whores, Deggael: A Rat's God

I took my fire upon a mountain To mock all truth that flatters men And I damned all hope That tomorrow shows For I cursed all life there is As screaming ghosts No heaven knows

And I want to be high As the suns that shine All the time

I took my fire upon a mountain
To sift through thoughts of all beasts and men
And I purged the gold
Thru which the world shall end
For I courted the Dragon
Yeah that old serpent

And I got to be high As the suns that shine All the time

And all of thee Shall be drunk of me Oh yes you will I think I'm Deggael
