

Bachdenkel, Strangerstill

How long have I been living here?
No-one can tell me
How often you've seen me
Yet no-one can know me

Sometimes I can almost see you near me
I can feel you
I can almost hear you call me

How long were you waiting for me
Calling to me, "How I need you"
Now I know you, take me to your world

I'm all alone even though I know you're here
The world has closed, all is dark, I have no fear
No-one knows me now I am you
