

Bachdenkel, The Settlement Song

At the time
And for all that you said
I was someone, I thought, that you knew

All gone, my mind
A child I am
Give me your eyes
To see the man I see
A stranger

Please take my life
It's all I can give
All that I have to show for myself
Please take my life

Losing my life, I find myself
Closer to you, I know myself
Help me to know you

Losing my life
Changing my mind
How can I find a way to know you?

A stranger I am
You say that you saw me before
I saw myself

You say you can help me to help myself
You say you can help
You say you can help me to see myself
Oh you say you can see I can't help myself
I can't help myself
I can't see myself

Why don't you take my life?
Why don't you take my life?
Why don't you take my life
Now that I know myself?

Free from my mind, the child I knew
Lost in your world, so far from you
And still a stranger