

Bachelor Girl, You Are Afraid

If I said I loved you
Would you stay around me
Or would you run
Scared of the power
Love can become
If I tried to hold you
Would I reach to find you gone
Will there be a day
You'll stare at real love
And not turn away
I'll feel the power
And be blinded by the light
I can touch the magic
That waits for us tonight
But You
You are afraid
When we make love
It's love that I make
But You are afraid
I'll feel the power
And be blinded by the light
I can touch the magic
That waits for us tonight
But You
You are afraid
When we make love
It's love that I make
But You are afraid
Cos You
You are afraid
When we make love
It's love that I make
But You are afraid
Afraid
